Sally Seneca

"Joe is a "go-getter!" He is very smart and a creative individual. I enjoyed working on group projects or assignments for school with him and he contributed greatly to our success."

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

- Find relevant keywords by browsing job listings and other people's profiles that appeal to you.
- Build your network by starting with classmates, professors, teaching assistants, family, friends, and work colleagues past and present.
- Add, remove, and rearrange entire sections of your profile to highlight your most impressive areas near the top.
- There are opportunities to network by being a member of a "Group"- if you're a member of the same group as another user, you can bypass the need to be a first-degree connection in order to message them.
- Advanced search feature: search for jobs by keyword, title, industry, location, company, experience level, and more.
- Allow others to see who you are if you view their profile through your Settings (click your thumbnail image in the top right and click Manage next to Privacy & Settings).
